O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you,
mercifully accept our prayers
and, because through the weakness
of our mortal nature
we can do no good thing without you,
grant us the help of your grace,
that in the keeping
of your commandments
we may please you
both in will and deed;
through Jesus Christ
your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

If you require a gluten free communion wafer please go to the altar in the Lady Chapel during communion.

GIFT AID YOUR DONATIONS: if you are a UK taxpayer why not donate using a yellow Gift Aid envelope so we can reclaim 25p for every £1 you give. Thank you.

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy (5.12-16)

Observe the sabbath day and keep it holy, as the Lord your God commanded you. For six days you shall labour and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work—you, or your son or your daughter, or your male or female slave, or your ox or your donkey, or any of your livestock, or the resident alien in your towns, so that your male and female slave may rest as well as you. Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the Lord your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore the Lord your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Psalm 116: 10-17

R: I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark (2:23-3:6)

One sabbath he was going through the cornfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. The Pharisees said to him, 'Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?' And he said to them, 'Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food? He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions.' Then he said to them, 'The sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the sabbath; so the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath.'

Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand. They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him. And he said to the man who had the withered hand, 'Come forward.' Then he said to them, 'Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?' But they were silent. He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, 'Stretch out your hand.' He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Notices

Dulwich Deanery Vision Evening: You are invited to a Dulwich Deanery Vision Evening on Wednesday 6 June, 7.30pm at St Faith's Church, North Dulwich. The purpose of the evening is to develop a shared vision for our deanery, come along with your thoughts and ideas.

Prayer Walk: Saturday 16 June. There will be a walk around the 'London Loop' to pray for London, focusing on the issue of knife and gun crime. If you would like to participate, join in at 11am at Erith rail station, finishing at Bexley rail station.

Southwark Diocesan Synod Elections: Southwark Diocesan Synod consists of Bishops, clergy and laity, shaping strategy and priorities for the whole Diocese. New lay members will be elected this summer, serving a term of three years, with three meetings per year. To find out more please speak to Anne Coates, Lay Chair of Dulwich Deanery. Nominations are due by Tuesday 26 June.

Concert in church, Saturday 30 June at 7pm:

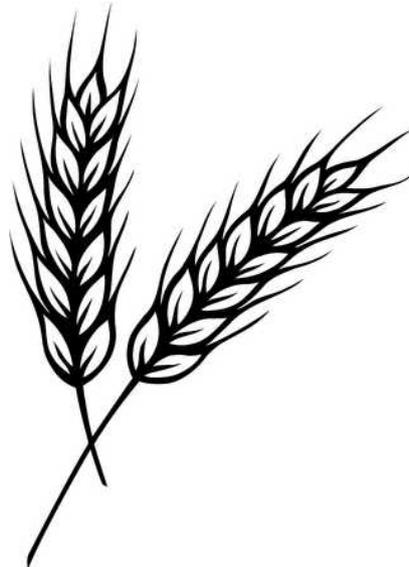

You are welcome to a concert at St John's on Saturday 30 June at 7pm. Our Junior Choir will be joined by Beckenham Junior Choir and Beckenham Youth Voices for an assortment of light-hearted songs. Admission is free, with a retiring collection. Refreshments will be served at the interval. To find out more speak to John Webber.

St John's Choir: Would you like to sing with the choir? The junior and adult choirs are always looking for new recruits, especially tenors. Please speak to John Webber (020 8650 9164) for further information.

St John's Crèche: We offer a crèche during our 10am service for children 0-5 years old. The children play, listen to a Bible story, sing songs or do an age-appropriate craft activity, and are collected in time for communion. We really need more volunteers to help our crèche develop and grow. Are you willing to help? Please speak to Gill or Libby Coates to find out more.

Admission to Communion: would you like your child to be prepared to receive Holy Communion? Children are welcome to receive Communion in the Church of England and it is the Diocese of Southwark's practice to make preparation available for children over seven. This year admissions will be during our 10am service on Sunday 8 July. Please speak to Julie Whitney, or Gill to find out more.

Dulwich Deanery at Lambeth Country Show: Brockwell Park, Sat 21 to Sun 22 July. Dulwich Deanery is joining with South and North Lambeth Deaneries to have a presence at this year's Lambeth Country Show. We need two enthusiastic and friendly volunteers from St John's to be there on Saturday 21 July from 4 to 6pm. There is a training session on Tuesday 17 July, 8pm St Thomas, Telford Park, SW2 4XW. Help is also needed with setting up and taking down, and with Messy Church sessions, Sat at 2pm, Sunday at 3pm. Please speak to Gill if you are willing to join in, or email Jane Andrews at: janeandrews@stmtq.com
