6pm: Requiem Mass for All Souls

Collect

Almighty God,
you have knit together
your elect in one communion
and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord:
grant us grace so to follow
your blessed saints
in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Gluten Free communion wafers are available from the Altar in the Lady Chapel.

Gift Aid your donations. If you are a UK taxpayer, please make your donation using a yellow Gift Aid envelope. We can reclaim 25p for every £1. Thank you.

A reading from Isaiah 25: 6-9

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death for ever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Psalm 24: 1-6 (8am Mass only)

R\: The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God.

A reading from Revelation 21: 1-6a

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.' And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.' Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.' Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.'

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John 11: 32-44

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.' When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?' Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.' Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?' So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

Goose Green Coffee Morning, Wednesday at 10.30am. This week our guest speaker is Helen Hayes, MP. All welcome.

Fair Trade stall – next Sunday after both the 8am and 10am Masses.

The next Special Collection will be on 18 November for Water Aid. There will be a short presentation at both the 8am and 10am Masses. If you are a taxpayer, please use the dedicated envelopes.

Make your voice heard! Saturday 24 November, 10am-2pm at Trinity House, SE1 1HW. Bishop Karowei invites young people (14-20 year-olds) from the Woolwich Episcopal Area to a forum to listen to their views on faith, life, local church, concerns and communities, with lunch provided. Please speak to Katherine Lyon for more details.

'Robes Sleep Out' to raise funds for the Robes Project will be on Friday 30 November. Young people over the age of 12 can also join us, but please speak to Julie Whitney or Katherine Lyon before registering. Visit robes.org.uk/sleepout2018

Theatre Trip: We are planning a trip to see 'Hadestown' at the National Theatre on Saturday 15 December. Tickets are around £30-£35. Hadestown is a record-breaking musical that has transferred to London from New York and has had very good reviews. Joy Taylor's son is appearing in it and if you would like more information or would like to book a ticket, please speak to Joy.

Robes Project: The Copleston Centre will be hosting the Robes shelter on Sunday nights from November to January this year. If you are interested in volunteering there, please Contact Rev Edward Collier at vicar@coplestoncentre.org.uk. More information about Robes at St John's will be available in November.

Week of Guided Prayer. We are hosting a week of guided prayer in the evenings from 6 to 11 January. This is a chance to learn different ways of praying and to deepen your prayer life in a safe and non-judgemental place. There is also an option to meet with a prayer guide on a one-to-one basis. If you would like to find out more about either the evening sessions or the one-to-one sessions please see the leaflet in church, speak to Rev Raymond Baudon or email curate@stjohnseastdulwich.org

St John's Christmas Fair

Saturday 1 December, 12pm – 3pm

Please volunteer for the Christmas Fair. There are lots of ways you can help make a successful occasion:

- Running a stall - This includes games and activities for children, books, vintage goods, lucky ticket, bottle stall, selling mince pies and mulled wine, etc.
- Handing out flyers on the day, being on the door and selling lucky programmes, supporting carol singing, setting-up the day before, etc.
- Also, it's not too late to sign-up for a Roy Brook's board outside your home. Please speak to Sue, Christine, Raymond or Delorine. Or you can email sue.oneill@virgin.net

Donations are needed of the following items, they can be brought in any Sunday:

- Bottles of wine, prosecco, ale, spirits, olive oil, etc. for our bottle stall.
- Christmas produce, sweets, preserves, jams, etc.
- Appealing tableware, glasses, ornaments etc which will draw buyers at our Vintage stall.
- Prizes for the "Lucky ticket" (raffle), or Grown-up's Lucky Dip for smaller items. Perhaps you know a business who will offer a prize? (Please let Sue know so we don't ask them twice!)
- Second-hand books.
- Good condition toys your child no longer needs,
- Also, on the day/evening before: mince pies, cakes, biscuits and other goodies.

And, if you know anyone who may be interested in hiring a table to sell their wares please pick up a leaflet from the back of church.
