Collect

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all:
govern the hearts and minds
of those in authority,
and bring the families of the nations,
divided and torn apart
by the ravages of sin,
to be subject to his just
and gentle rule;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Gluten Free communion wafers are available from the Altar in the Lady Chapel.

Gift Aid your donations. If you are a UK taxpayer, please make your donation using a yellow Gift Aid envelope. We can reclaim 25p for every £1. Thank you.

Psalm 62 vv. 5-end (8am Mass only)

R\: God alone is my rock and my salvation

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews (9: 24-end)

For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgement, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to St Mark (1: 14-20)

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.'

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake - for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fish for people.' And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Make your voice heard! Saturday 24 November, 10am-2pm at Trinity House, SE1 1HW. Bishop Karowei invites young people (14-20 year-olds) from the Woolwich Episcopal Area to a forum to listen to their views on faith, life, local church, concerns and communities, with lunch provided. Please speak to Katherine Lyon for more details.

Week of Guided Prayer. We are hosting a week of guided prayer in the evenings from 6 to 11 January. This is a chance to learn different ways of praying and to deepen your prayer life in a safe and non-judgemental place. There is also an option to meet with a prayer guide on a one-to-one basis. If you would like to find out more about either the evening sessions or the one-to-one sessions please see the leaflet in church, speak to Rev Raymond Baudon or email curate@stjohnseastdulwich.org

St John's Christmas Fair

Saturday 1 December, 12pm – 3pm

Please volunteer for the Christmas Fair. There are lots of ways you can help make a successful occasion:

- Running a stall – This includes games and activities for children, books, vintage goods, lucky ticket, bottle stall, selling mince pies and mulled wine, etc.
- Helping with set-up – on Friday the 30th arranging café style tables and chairs in church, getting decorations up, putting up Christmas trees and a myriad other tasks! Also getting everything in place on the big day.
- Tidying up at the end and putting the church back to normal.
- Handing out flyers on the day, being on the door and selling lucky programmes, supporting carol singing, etc.
- Also, it's not too late to sign up for a Roy Brook's board outside your home.

Please speak to Sue, Christine, Raymond or Delorine.
Or you can email sue.oneill@virgin.net

Donations are needed of the following items, they can be brought in any Sunday:

- Bottles of wine, prosecco, ale, spirits, olive oil, etc for our bottle stall
- Christmas produce, sweets, preserves, jams etc.
- Appealing tableware, glasses, ornaments etc which will draw buyers at our Vintage stall
- Prizes for the "Lucky ticket" (raffle), or Grown-ups' Lucky Dip for smaller items. Perhaps you know a business who will offer a prize? (Please let Sue know so we don't ask them twice!)
- Second-hand books
- Good condition toys your child no longer needs,
- Also on the day/evening before: mince pies, cakes, biscuits and other goodies.
