The Collect

Let us pray

O God,
you know us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers,
that by reason of the frailty of our nature
we cannot always stand upright:
grant to us such strength and protection as may support us in all dangers and carry us through all temptations;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

The flowers in the Sanctuary have been gifted to the Glory of God In loving memory of Muriel Beatrice and Carole Hampson with love and prayers from Tina Hampson and Beatrice Warren-Hampson.

Old Testament – Isaiah 6.1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said:

‘Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.’

The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: ‘Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!’ Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: ‘Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.’ Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, ‘Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?’ And I said, ‘Here am I; send me!’

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 138 R/ Great is the glory of the Lord. (8am mass only)

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke 5.1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, ‘Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.’ Simon answered, ‘Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.’ When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, ‘Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!’ For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, ‘Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.’ When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ

Notices

Please note: Revd Gill is on a mini sabbatical from 31/01/22 to 20/03/22 and will not be available during this time.

Contact details in Gill's absence:

Revd Gemma Birt will be the first point of contact for pastoral matters, funerals and church services, working with the rest of our clergy team.

For other matters, please contact our churchwardens, Jim Nurton or Julie Whitney, or our Parish Administrator, Denise Fulgoni.

If you have a Safeguarding concern, please get in touch with Mary Dawson, or the Diocesan Safeguarding Adviser, Pamela Chisholm.

All contact details can be found on the weekly pew sheet, or on the "Contact Us" page of our website.

Note - The family of Tony La Mothe would like to thank members of the congregation for their condolences. There will be a Requiem Mass in church for Tony at 10.30am on Thursday 17th February, followed by an internment at Camberwell New Cemetery, Brenchley Gardens. All are welcome to attend the funeral and the Wake in the Goose Green Centre afterwards. There will be family flowers only. Members of the congregation may wish to make a donation to the Alzheimer's Society or a charity supporting education in the third world as tribute.

Thursday Mass: The noon Mass has resumed and will continue weekly (except 17 February). This is a short service, held in the Lady Chapel. Everyone is very welcome to come along.

Church Flowers 2022 - You can offer your gift in thanksgiving of a person or an event. Specially labelled gift aid envelopes are available at the back of the church along with flower request forms which include a suggested donation, or you can pay contactless and denote as flowers. If you have any queries, please speak to Revd. Gemma or contact Denise Fulgoni in the parish office.

Ash Wednesday, 2 March – Please return your Palm crosses for ashes to be made. Basket at the back of the church for collection.

Goose Green Coffee Morning – This week's coffee morning is indoors, with social distancing and ventilation still in place to keep us as safe as possible. Wrapping up warm is still advised! Can you help with some gardening while at the coffee morning? Martin Howell would be very happy with some volunteers. If you would like to be added to the Coffee Morning mailing list or to find out more, please email sue.oneill0826@gmail.com

Lunch Club – Meeting in the Goose Green Centre at 12.30 pm for a two-course meal followed by tea or coffee (cost £5). If you would like to join us or would like
